PUBLIC NOTICE

IMPORT TRADE CONTROL

New Delhi, the 23rd April 1970

Subject:—The scheme of Sale and distribution through Allotment Releases from NMDC's stock of rough precious stones procured from Burma Auction.

No. 61-ITC(PN)/70.—The NMDC Ltd. have obtained a stock of 1877 grams of rough rubies and 44,721 grams of rough sapphires from the auction conducted by the Government of Burma at Rangoon in February 1970. For the purpose of utilisation of the material for export purposes the following arrangements as regards sales and distribution thereof have been decided upon by the Government of India.

- 1. The National Mineral Development Corporation will at a notified place and date conduct an auction for the sale of the rough rubies and sapphires divided into convenient lots. They will also notify the terms and conditions regarding payment, delivery and other matters connected therewith.
- 2. Admission to the auction to be conducted by NMDC will be restricted to members of the Gem and Jewellery Export Promotion Council, who have an export of not less than Rs. 1 lakh to their credit in 1968-69 or 1969-70 of precious stones cut or polished; or sales to foreign tourists of not less than $ 10,000 in either of these two years or have sold in international fairs or exhibition gems and jewellery worth at least Rs. 1 lakh in any one year within the last three years.

- 3. The successful bidders at the auction will submit an application in the prescribed form (Annexure I), verified by the Council, to the NMDC for the grant of allotment. The NMDC on scrutiny of the application will endorse the fact of the bidders' participation in the auction, indicating details of the purchase, value, quantity etc. and forward the full set of papers to the licensing office concerned for issue of the allotment release order.
  - 4. The allotment Release Order will be subject to the following conditions:-
    - (i) That before the actual issue of the allotment release order the applicant would execute a bond (in the form given in annexure 11) supported with bank guarantee for 50 per cent of the value of the release order. The bank guarantee shall be valid for a period of two years.
    - (ii) that as per terms of the bond the successful bidder applicant be required to undertake to export cut and polished rubies and/or sappnires as the case may be to the extent of 142-6/7 per cent of the value of the Release Order within a period of six months from the date of issue of the Allotment Release Order.
  - 5. Advance Licences on fulfilment of Export Obligation.
    - (a) In the event of fulfilment of the export condition as aforesaid within the prescribed time limit the licensees will be entitled to apply for advance licence or obtain allotment release orders. Such requests will be considered tavourably with incorporation of suitable export obligations against quantities allowed.
    - (b) In the event of non-fulfilment of the export obligation within six months from the date of issue of the release order or such other extended date, the bond/bank guarantee will stand forteited to me Government of India and in addition, the shortfall in value in export obligation stipulated in para 4(h) above would be adjusted against any of the licences that may be due to the applicant. He would also be liable to de-registration and any other penal action that may be taken against the applicant under the Imports (Control) Order, 1955, as amended.
- 6. The applicant, shall have the option of applying for the Allotment of Release Order as aforesaid or alternatively of having a valid import replenishment licence for precious stones held by him, debited with the value of goods purchased by him from NMDC. In case adjustment is made against valid Registered Exporter's Policy Licences, no bond or obligation need be entered into and the normal Registered Exporters' Policy conditions will apply.

7. Watch Over Performance

The Gem and Jewellery Export Promotion Council and the concerned Licensing Authority shall closely watch the fulfilment of the export obligation stipulated under the Allotment Release Order. A separate Export-wise Register would be maintained by the Council/Licensing Authority to indicate the progress of fulfilment of obligation against each allotment release order. After the expiry of six months from the date of issue of the Release Order a statement will be furnished by the Council to the Ministry of Foreign Trade, the concerned Licensing Authority and the Chief Auditor in the Department of Economic Affairs indicating the export completed by each firm who has received an allocation release order under this scheme.

The Controller of Imports and Exports, Srinagar.

And whereas one of the terms provides that the allottee will execute a bond along with one sufficient surety in the manner hereinabove written with such conditions as are hereunder.

And whereas the allottee, on the basis of his successful bid at the auction conducted by the N.M.D.C. Ltd. for rough rubies and sapphires, has applied for an allotment Release Order of the value of Rs.

Now the condition of the above written bond is such that the said allottee shall within six months from the date of issue of the allotment order export to G.C.A, the cut and polished rubles/sapphires for 142-6/7 per cent of the value of the allotment release order i.e. equivalent to the f.o.b. value of Rs. . . . . . and that, in the event of failure to do so surrender or cause to be surrendered the replenishment entitlement earned by him in his capacity as a registered exporter of Gem and Jewellery goods under the import policy for such exporters, otherwise the bond shall remain in full force and virtue and the surety shall on demand pay to the President of India the said sum of Rs.

And the Suretv hereby further agrees that the Government shall have the fullest liberty without affecting in any manner the obligation of the Surety with or without his consent to vary any of the terms or extend time from time to time for the exercise of any of the powers exercisable by the Government against the Allottee and either to forbear or entorce any of the terms of conditions and the Suretv shall not be relieved from his liability by reason of any variation or by any indulgence by the Government to the Allottee or by any such matter or thing whatsoever which under the law relating to the Sureties would but for this provision have the effect of so relieving the Surety.

And it is hereby declared that

- (a) The above written bond, shall remain in full force and effect for a period of eighteen months from the date of execution of this bond.
- (b) Any forbearance, act or omission on the part of the Government in enforcing the conditions of the aforesaid bond against the Allottee or any time being granted or any indulgence by the Government to the Allottee in connection therewith sha'l not discharge the Surety.
- (c) That this bond is entered into under the orders of the Central Government for the performance of an Act in which the public are interested,

(d) That the payment of the amount of the bond will not affect the liability of the Allottee to any other action (including refusal of further allotment release order) that may be taken under the Import Trade Control regulations.

The stamp duty on this bond has been agreed to be paid by the Government In witness whereof the parties hereto have duly executed these presents the day and the year first above written
